The 22nd ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING will be held at BRISTOL, commencing on WEDNESDAY, August 22.

President.

SIR JOHN HAWKSHAW, C.E., F.R.S., &c.

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS OF MEMOIRS.—Authors are reminded that, under an arrangement dating from 1871, the acceptance of Memoirs, and the days on which they are to be read, are now, as far as possible, determined by Organising Committees for the several Sections before the beginning of the Meeting. It has therefore become necessary, in order to give an opportunity to the Committees of doing justice to the several communications, that each author should prepare an abstract of his Memoir, of a length suitable for insertion in the published Transactions of the Association, and that he should send it, together with the original Memoir, by book-post, on or before August 11, addressed thus:—"General Secretaries, British Association, 22, Albemarle Street, London, W. For Section". If it should be inconvenient to the Author that his paper should be read on any particular day, he is requested to send information thereof to the Secretaries in a separate note.

G. GRIFFITH, M.A.,
Assistant General Secretary, Harrow.

MR. VAN LAUN'S TRANSLATION OF MOLIÈRE.

WILL BE PUBLISHED ON MAY 15, VOLUME FIRST, Demy 8vo, cloth, price 18s.

THE COMPLETE DRAMATIC WORKS OF

MOLIÈRE,

RENDERED INTO ENGLISH BY HENRI VAN LAUN,

Translator of Taine's "History of English Literature."

With Prefatory Memoir, Introductory Notices, Appendices, and Notes. Illustrated with a Portrait and thirty-three Etchings, executed specially for this edition by M. AD. LALAUZE, of Paris.

TO FORM SIX VOLUMES, OCTAVO, PRICE 18s. EACH.

The following limited impressions, on LARGE PAPER, will be prepared for Subscribers:—

- I. 150 copies on superfine paper, with India proof impressions of the etchings, royal 8vo, One Guinea and a Half per volume.
- II. 30 copies on Whatman's Imperial Paper with proofs on China Paper, imp. 8vo, Two Guineas per volume.
- III. 20 copies on Whatman's Imperial Paper with proofs on China Paper, and an Extra Set of Artist's proofs on Japanese Paper, Two Guineas and a Half per volume.

More than a century having elapsed since the last edition of Molière in English was issued in this country, it has been thought desirable to supply the want in our literature by an entirely new translation of all his dramatic works. Mr. Henri van Laun, whose rendering of M. Taine's "History of English Literature" received such high commendation, having undertaken the work of Translating and Editing, has endeavoured to give not only a faithful English translation of the great dramatist, but has also sought as far as possible to preserve the spirit and brilliancy of the original.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

AMERICAN ORGANS in every variety of
CRAMER'S Manufacture and on CRAMER'S
Three Years System.

Prices from 15 Guineas, or £1 11s. 6d. a Quarter.

CRAMER and Co. by no means wish it to be understood, as in some quarters it would seem to have been, that their AMERICAN ORGANS are used by Messrs. Moody and Sankey at their interesting meetings.

CRAMER'S instruments are much more solid in manufacture, and infinitely superior in quality of tone, and are certainly not open to the objection made by perhaps the most influential literary and musical journal to the imported organs:—"Judged from the artistic point of view, the instrument is no more agreeable to the ear than is the stentorian power displayed by the singer."

Moreover, while CRAMER'S AMERICAN ORGANS are more satisfactorily made, and better finished in all respects, they are sold at prices varying from 15 to 25 per cent. below those of all imported instruments.

These, and all other instruments of CRAMER'S manufacture, can be had on the three years system, which, originated by CRAMER'S, has been partially adopted by other firms, but is carried out on a thoroughly large and liberal scale only by themselves.

EPPS'S COCOA.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which many save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

L. VON RANKE'S

HISTORY OF ENGLAND.

PRINCIPALLY in the SEVENTEENTH CENTURY.

"A book which affords a clear and novel account of the European position held by England during the seventeenth century."—Athenaeum.

"It will be a happy day for English historical study if it is clearly understood that not to have read and digested this book deprives a writer of any claim to be heard on the period of which it treats. It would be impossible to give any idea of its high merits by any selection of extracts. It must be studied as a whole, and it would be as idle to attempt to convey any idea of the whole by a paragraph as it would be to convey an idea of Mont Blanc by showing a pebble picked up at its foot."—Academy.

"The title but imperfectly represents the scope of the work, which really embraces the entire period of English history, beginning with the conquest by Caesar, and ending at the accession of George the Third. The portion relating to the seventeenth century is treated in greater detail than the others. The historian examines it in the light of documents and information which he has either discovered, consulted, or obtained for the first time. All the other sections are dealt with in a fresh and independent fashion, and are the more useful on account of the way in which the art of condensation has been applied to them. He takes nothing for granted; he investigates every moot point; and he is unwearied in consulting and comparing his authorities."—Daily News.

SECOND EDITION OF

UNTRODDEN SPAIN, and her BLACK COUNTRY.

Being Sketches of the Life and Character of the Spaniards of the Interior. By HUGH JAMES ROSE, M.A., of Oriel College, Oxford; Chaplain to the English, French, and German Mining Companies of Linares; and formerly Acting Chaplain to Her Majesty's Forces at Dover Garrison. In 3 vols. 8vo, price 30s.

The SATURDAY REVIEW says:—"His title of 'Untrodden Spain' is no misnomer. He leads us into scenes and among classes of Spaniards where few English writers have preceded him. . . . We can only recommend our readers to get it and search for themselves. Those who are most intimately acquainted with Spain will best appreciate its varied excellencies."

The SPECTATOR says:—"The author's kindness is as conspicuous as his closeness of observation and fairness of judgment; his sympathy with the people inspires his pen as happily as does his artistic appreciation of the country; and both have combined in the production of a work of striking novelty and sterling value."

The STANDARD says:—"It is fresh, life-like, and chatty, and is written by a man who is accustomed to look below the surface of things."

The ATHENÆUM says:—"We regret that we cannot make further extracts, for 'Untrodden Spain' is by far the best book upon Spanish peasant life that we have ever met with."

The LITERARY CHURCHMAN says:—"Seldom has a book of travel come before us which has so taken our fancy in reading, and left behind it, when the reading was over, so distinct an impression. . . . We must reluctantly close our review of these delightful volumes, leaving the major part of them unnoticed. But we have quoted sufficient to show our readers how well the author has used his opportunities."

The NONCONFORMIST says:—"This book forms most interesting reading. It is the result of careful observation, it communicates many facts, it is written in a polished yet lively style, and will thus, perhaps, remain for some time the best reference-book about rural Spain."

The FIELD says:—"An amount of really valuable information respecting the lower classes of Spaniards, their daily life and conversation, and ways of looking at things, such as few writers have given us."

The JOHN BULL says:—"We have rarely been able to recommend a book more cordially. It has not a dull page, . . . deserves to be a great success."

BLUEBELL. By Mrs. G. C. Huddleston. 3 vols., 31s. 6d.

"Sparkling, well written, spirited, and may be read with certainty of amusement."—Sunday Times.
"Bluebell" is almost as agreeable as its title. It is clever with that cleverness which never sinks into affectation. A rather complicated plot is managed with much adroitness. There are vigorous bits of personal description, lively and natural social pictures, well-wrought character sketches. . . . To those who read to be amused, 'Bluebell' will be, or ought to be, very acceptable; it is a lively wholesome story."—Scotsman.

I.

VISCOUNT STRANGFORD'S NOVEL.

ANGELA PISANI. By the late George SYDNEY SMYTHE, Seventh Viscount Strangford. With a Memoir of the Author, by the VISCOUNTESS STRANGFORD. In 3 vols. crown 8vo.

"The characters in 'Angela Pisani' are elaborately worked out; the scenes and incidents are rich, varied, and poetic; the historical and political ideas interwoven with the dialogue are bold and striking; while over all breathes that nameless charm which tells us we are in the presence of genius." Full Mail Gazette.

"One of the features, as it will doubtless soon be one of the fashions, of the season of 1875."—The World.

"One stage of the story takes the reader to the Battle-field of Austerlitz. The author's fancy paints vividly the stir and turmoil of war, the dazzling show of splendour, and the gay courage of the troops which usher in these as bright sunshine may a heavy storm; it pauses in the heat of swift narrative to rest with an admiration which some will think too intense upon the central figure of Napoleon. It would be difficult to point to a more impressive picture of that figure than is given in a short space, as it would to find a more spirited description of the cavalry charge than that which follows." Saturday Review.

II.

MR. HAWLEY SMART'S NEW NOVEL.

"TWO KISSES." By Hawley Smart, Author of "Breeze Langton," "False Cards," &c. In 3 vols. crown 8vo.

"It is refreshing to meet with a hearty, healthy, and genuine novel such as the author of 'Two Kisses' gives us.... The interest is never allowed to flag for a moment, and there is no reason that 'Two Kisses' should not be one of the most popular novels of the season."—Morning Post.

"Mr. Hawley Smart's novels are generally lively and readable, and this one of 'Two Kisses' is no exception." Saturday Review.

The POETICAL WORKS of SYDNEY DOBELL. With an Introductory Notice and Memoir by JOHN NICHOL, M.A., LL.D., Professor of English Literature in the University of Glasgow. 2 vols. crown 8vo, with Portrait, 21s.

"The gifts which Sydney Dobell possessed in most eminent degree were those which are rarest in poetry. There are few poets who have written so little whose surviving influence is greater. Chaotic as some of his work has been pronounced to be, the chaos is one out of which worlds may be created."—Athenaeum.

"A poet of great originality, sweetness, and strength." Nonconformist.

"Mr. Sydney Dobell's biography Professor Nichol briefly sketches in a memoir distinguished by tasteful reticence, and an enthusiasm that never passes the bounds of good sense."—Examiner.

"The man who reads 'Grass from the Battlefield,' with its marvellous descriptions and pictures, its tenderness and its terrors; 'A Bridal Eve,' with its weird and mystical suggestions; 'How my Boy,' unsurpassable in homely pathos (and some others), and does not admit the author to be a poet, should turn over again in his mind his canons of art and reconsider his own fitness to utter an opinion on the subject."—Sunday Times.

"Characteristic of Mr. Dobell is the richness, originality, and trenchancy of his metaphor. Peculiar to himself, we think, is a certain strength of pathos, essentially powerful as well as delicate." Scotsman.

RUSSIA'S ADVANCE EASTWARD.

By CAPT. C. E. H. VINCENT, F.R.G.S.

Crown 8vo, with Map, 6s.

"Captain Vincent's account of the improvements which have taken place lately in all branches of the service is accurate and clear, and is full of useful material for the consideration of those who believe that Russia is still where she was left by the Crimean war."—Athenæum.

"Even more interesting, perhaps, than Lieutenant Stumm's narrative of one of the most brilliant military exploits of recent years is Captain Vincent's own account of the reconstruction, under Milutin, of the Russian Army. Few books will give a better idea of its progress than this brief survey of its present state and latest achievement."—Graphic.

MEMORIALS OF MILLBANK, and CHAPTERS in PRISON HISTORY.

By Captain ARTHUR GRIFFITHS, Author of "The Queen's Shilling."

With Illustrations, Two Vols. post 8vo.

A history of Millbank is necessarily an epitome of all that concerns prisons and prison management in modern times. From first to last it has continued to be part and parcel of all our schemes of secondary punishment. But the present volumes are more than a mere record of penal legislation. Millbank Penitentiary, as it was once called, has passed through a chequered life. It has seen endless changes, and many curious episodes have occurred within its walls. Advantage has been taken of these to weave together a narrative which may not be uninteresting to a large circle of readers.

THE BALLAD LITERATURE AND POPULAR MUSIC OF THE OLDEN TIME:

A COLLECTION OF THE OLD SONGS, BALLADS, AND DANCE TUNES WHICH CONSTITUTE THE NATIONAL MUSIC OF ENGLAND; ARRANGED CHRONOLOGICALLY, WITH REMARKS AND ANECDOTES, AND PRECEDED BY SKETCHES OF THE EARLY STATE OF MUSIC, AND OF THE AMUSEMENTS ASSOCIATED WITH IT IN ENGLAND DURING THE VARIOUS REIGNS.

By W. CHAPPELL, F.S.A.

The present Work, indispensable to all who are interested in the Popular Literature of England, is the result of many years' careful research among MSS., Black-Letter Books, and the numerous ephemeral Publications of the Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and the early part of the Eighteenth Century. The various Ballad collections, such as the Pepys, the Roxburghe, the Bagford, the Douce, the Rawlinson, &c., have been laid under contribution; whilst the Garlands collected by Pepys, Ashmole, Wood, Luttrell, &c., have furnished considerable matter in illustration of the subject. The old Dramatists have been carefully gleaned for notices of Old Songs and Ballads, and every available source likely to enrich the Work has been examined and quoted. Thus, the book is not a mere collection of Old English Tunes, but an account, Popular and Literary, of hundreds of our Old Ballads; in many cases giving entire Ballads for the first time in an accessible shape. The Two Volumes contain upwards of Eight Hundred Pages, with Facsimiles from old MSS. and Printed Books.

OLD ENGLISH DITTIES.

All the Favourite Songs selected from "Popular Music of the Olden Time," with Symphonies and Accompaniments for the Pianoforte by G. A. MACFARREN; the long Ballads compressed, and in some cases new words written, by JOHN OXENFORD.
